Trial Order. This is the third request regarding the deadline to file the Joint Pretrial Order between 1 the parties. 2 3 4 5 The parties have been diligently working and communicating to finalize a Joint Pre-Trial 6 Order in this matter. However, because of unforeseen issues and demanding schedules of Counsel, 7 additional time is needed. Plaintiff's Counsel has had a demanding schedule with briefing in other 8 matters, depositions and hearings and is working on responses to three dispositive motions; as well 9 as the LVMPD Defendants' Counsel also having briefing and depositions in other matters. The 10 11 parties have a substantially complete draft of the Joint Pre-Trial Order drafted, but are still 12 attempting to resolve issues related to its content to finalize it. 13 There is good cause to extend the deadline to submit a Joint Pretrial Order up until November 14 20, 2024 as stated above. The parties make this request jointly and request a brief extension. 15 DATED this 15th day of October, 2024. 16 PETER GOLDSTEIN LAW CORP KAEMPFER CROWELL 17 By: /s/ Lyssa S.
